Title: The Man Who Laughs. Year released: 2014. Director: Victor Salva Starring Cal Penn, Devon Bostick, Kelly Rowan, Matt Bomer, Roxanne Hayes, Stephen Colletti, John Billingsley, Jake Cherry, J.D. Evermore, Kim Rhodes You don't have to be a jack-of-all-trades to know that the protagonist of True Blood is a vampire. But how do you prove it, how do you convince people around you? That's where Sookie Stackhouse comes to the rescue, deciding to take matters into her own hands. She decided that everyone should know the truth and that's why she became a vampire. Sookie had no intention of being like her parents. Even as a little girl, she noticed that her father and mother acted as if they had a mole on their foreheads that showed their attitude toward their relatives. They always acted as if other people were inferior to them. They didn't like it when something was done differently than they did. And they weren't fun to be with. They were always trying to make everyone happy. And they didn't even think about the fact that sometimes people didn't want to do what they were told.
