The Brood is coming. Legend tells that the world of Iron City is under attack from a terrifying alien army.

Suddenly, a small group of people awakens in what seems to be an abandoned town. They are badly beaten, barely alive. With nowhere to turn, they struggle to find a way out of the hell that awaits them. But to do so, you must first survive the monsters and find a way home. If you can make it out of the old town alive, then your worst nightmare might just come true. In the best tradition of classic adventure games, you are free to wander around as you play. The game features a very unique narrative campaign in which you play as Tim, a local man who just woke up in the middle of nowhere, but a few hours later everything is different. Your adventure begins with the horrific intro and then you are free to wander around the sandbox world. You can interact with some objects and even use them to talk to other people, but your main aim is to survive. You can find food, medications, weapons, clothes and more. You can even gain access to the local pharmacy by using money you will find along the way.

The game also features a skill system you can use to improve your characters skill by opening new buildings, buying new weapons and more. The game is said to be over 100 hours long (including all the possible endings) and is expected to be released by the end of this year. Features: * A story-driven single-player sandbox RPG experience. * A fully destructible environment and hundreds of buildings to explore. * Choose a character class (or even become a wild card) and power-up your skills. * Drop-in-and-out co-op multiplayer. * Random encounters and loot from the world. * Completable in singleplayer mode. * The game is fully integrated into the Steam overlay. * Fully voiced, written dialogue and a fully orchestrated soundtrack. * Beautiful hand drawn visuals. If you liked the SEGA Saturn classics, then prepare to get hyper, as The Brood is here! The game has been funded on Kickstarter and is currently in the demo stage with a release date of November 2017. The demo is available for PC, Mac OS X and Linux and if you want to contribute you can do so using this link

Northeast of Willow Tree Swamp and to the southeast of Moonstone Plains is a massive mountain in the middle of the region called The Sacred Stone. This mountain is the home of one of the NPC clans in the area. It is the largest NPC clan in the game. If you're willing to endure the difficult trek up the mountain, you may have a chance to meet the founder of this clan. Tetons, a friendly tribe, are found living near The Sacred Stone. Their tribe and flock consists of about 250-400 people. Tetons also keep a couple of aurochs horses on the mountain. The aurochs are indigenous to the Tetons' homeland, which is in the North Central region of Montana. Tetons, while much like tribes found in America, are very similar to those found in the Southern Highlands of Scotland. Most of the people of this tribe can be found wearing the kilts, which are much like the ones found in Scotland. They also wear furry hats. The footwear is also similar. As far as the language, it is also pretty much the same. For a major portion of the year, the tribe does not speak with outsiders. They can be found on top of The Sacred Stone, dancing, eating, and fishing. It is said that the aurochs are sacred to this tribe. The Mountain Mystic, another NPC clan, is found on The Sacred Stone. These people worship demons and spirits. The symbols and markings on their faces and bodies are constantly changing. Some are made of natural rock, while some are made of different materials like shell and bone. One of the most sacred items the Mountain Mystic have are the Teena weapons. The Teena weapons are made of bones and shells from a great unknown species of sea creature. When used, the Teena weapons can grant one of the following effects: Cows can feed and drink water where ever they go Ride for free Cows can eat any grass they want Ability to walk through walls Aurochs are sacred to this tribe The Mountain Mystic is a very interesting clan. They believe in the existence of different demons and spirits. Their most famous deity is called the Moonspirit. The Moonspirit is the one who brought them to The Sacred Stone. They believe the

What's new in The Sacred Stone:

Camp will be dismantled and shall be used to erect a border wall on behalf of Rick and Mark Guandique to divide the United States in two along the same racist and anti-humanitarian lines that allowed the Dakota Access Pipeline to exist a bloody site of cattle butchery and an infant village destroyed. William Ayers is a military decorated Vietnam War veteran and former trial attorney from Illinois. He is now the first candidate out of over a dozen people to publicly admit that he has committed "terrorist acts." His clean criminal record denotes that he is the perfect candidate for "terrorism," and can now help in the Presidential campaign for Tim Kaine, Hillary Clinton, Mike Pence and John Kasich. Bill Ayers, August 14, 2015 Originally published at Grassroots and Grassroots Pressure Is Key The historic moment is upon us at the Standing Rock Sioux (Dakota Access) #NoDAPL camp in Cannonball, North Dakota. The scene was reminiscent of the '60s, when Black Panthers, Students for a Democratic Society, Black Liberation Army, and The Weathermen coordinated bombings, assassinations and bank robberies, in the name of an emerging Third World movement. During this exciting historical time, my hero and dear friend Bernardine Dohrn from the Weathermen sat with me for a special meeting that lasted from 4 to 10 a.m. at her Million Jobs Now store and headquarters at 3915 W. Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, California (which remains a legacy of the visionary revolutionary organization). Would the media be able to keep its collective mouth shut and let this important history unfold, or would the Pinkerton thugs who are protecting the pipeline attempt to silence me and others who will speak out on this historic occasion? The historical moment unfolds in three phases that could not be more critical. In Phase I: All players must unite against the corporate forces who are on a mission to save their bottom line through the line of the Standing Rock Sioux. Phase II: The nation will witness a historic inter-tribal alliance between the Native Americans who face the greatest threat of water contamination and a world-wide coalition of internationalists, feminists, culture warriors, members of the Black Liberation Army, Black Panthers, Indigenous Mexicans, and others who are united in defense of the natural environment and the very first people, the indigenous people of Turtle Island. Phase III: The Black Panthers reach the White House and initiate an investigation of the Clinton-Obama criminals and imperialists who are moving the
