On the other hand, Taggart has indicated that there will be a patience built into the roster. Defensive coordinator Jim Leavitt is known for being a tough taskmaster. "Our culture is you've got to earn your keep. If you don't earn your keep and we see it, obviously we'll address it," Taggart said. "It's just you get to know who's going to be in your football operations office and you get to know who's going to be in the classroom and on your football team." When combined with the Huskies offseason plan, a slowdown of the first time season two allows the preparation to happen. "I think that's going to help make a big difference," Taggart said. "I think that's what we're thinking about." How far the Huskies go in the Pac 12 will depend on their Occ13bf012
